

CHAPTER BUSINESS PROCEDURE

SkillsUSA Championships Technical Standards

PURPOSE

To evaluate a chapter's ability to conduct regular SkillsUSA business meetings according to correct parliamentary procedure and the order of business published in these regulations. The competition is based on the rules found in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

ELIGIBILITY (TEAM OF SIX)

Open to active SkillsUSA members. The team need not be composed of officers, but team members must be organized under one local chapter. All team members must be members in the same division. Each team will consist of six registered members. The team may perform with five members if a member fails to show up or is forced to withdraw within five days of the competition. (See General Regulations.)

CLOTHING REQUIREMENTS

Class A: SkillsUSA Official Attire

- Official SkillsUSA red blazer or official SkillsUSA red jacket
- Button-up, collared, white dress shirt (accompanied by a plain, solid black tie or SkillsUSA black tie), white shirt (collarless or small-collared) or white turtleneck, with any collar not to extend into the lapel area of the blazer, sweater, windbreaker or jacket
- Black dress slacks or black dress skirt (knee-length at minimum)
- Black closed-toe dress shoes

Note: The official SkillsUSA windbreaker, sweater, and black Carhartt jacket are no longer available for purchase in the SkillsUSA Store. However, these clothing items are grandfathered in as previous official SkillsUSA clothing and can be worn in SkillsUSA competitions as directed in this document.

Note: Wearing socks or hose is no longer required. If worn, socks must be black dress socks and hose must be either black or skin-tone and seamless/nonpattern.

These regulations refer to clothing items that are pictured and described at www.skillsusastore.org. If you have questions about clothing or other logo items, call 1-888-501-2183.

Note: Competitors must wear their official competition clothing to the competition orientation meeting.

OBSERVER RULE

Observers may be permitted in the demonstration area as allowed by the technical committee, if space is available. Observers will be instructed not to talk, gesture, or enter and/or exit the demonstration area, while a team is competing. No cameras, cellphones, video recorders, or audio recorders can be used by members of the audience.

EQUIPMENT AND MATERIALS

1. Supplied by the technical committee:
 - a. Speaker's stand (lectern)
 - b. Gavel
 - c. Pad and pencil for secretary
 - d. One copy of the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised per demonstration room
 - e. Packet for each team, which will include:
 - f. List of business items
 - g. Minutes of a previous meeting (these minutes cannot be modified)
 - h. Treasurer's report
 - i. Committee reports
 - j. One pencil
 - k. Stopwatch
 - l. Extra pencils as may be required
2. Supplied by the competitors:
 - a. All competitors must create a one-page resume. See "Resume Requirement" below for guidelines.

RESUME REQUIREMENT

Competitors must create a one-page resume to submit online. SkillsUSA South Carolina competitors should submit their resume by the deadline published on the competition updates page of our website. Failure to submit a resume will result in a 10-point penalty.

Your resume must be saved as a PDF file type using file name format of "Last Name_First Name." For example, "Amanda Smith" would save her resume as Smith_Amanda. If you need assistance with saving your file as a PDF, visit the Adobe website for more information.

Note: Check the Competition Guidelines and/or the updates page on the state website.

PROHIBITED DEVICES

Cellphones, electronic watches and/or other electronic devices not approved by a competition's national technical committee are NOT allowed in the competition area. Please follow the guidelines in each technical standard for approved exceptions. Technical committee members may also approve exceptions onsite during the SkillsUSA Championships if deemed appropriate.

Penalties for Prohibited Devices

If a competitor's electronic device makes noise or if the competitor is seen using it at any time during the competition, an official report will be documented for review by the Director of the SkillsUSA Championships. If confirmed that the competitor used the device in a manner which compromised the integrity of the competition, the competitor's scores may be removed.

SCOPE OF THE COMPETITION

The competition consists of two parts that test knowledge of parliamentary procedure: a written exam and a Chapter Business Procedure demonstration. During a simulated regular SkillsUSA business meeting, teams will demonstrate the procedures necessary to complete the meeting, from call to order to adjournment, using only those portions of the following order of business that are required by competition materials given to the team.

KNOWLEDGE PERFORMANCE

The written exam consists of questions related to material found in Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. Scores are averaged and included as part of the team's overall score. This written test score will comprise up to 150 of the possible 1,000 points of the total score for all rounds of the competition. Visit the website of the National Association of Parliamentarians (www.parliamentarians.org) to download a study guide for preparing for the NAP membership exam. Competitors are required to take the SkillsUSA Professional Development Test.

SKILL PERFORMANCE

The competition consists of a demonstration of a simulated chapter business meeting.

COMPETITION GUIDELINES

1. During the presentation, the team will demonstrate the running of a typical business meeting using a standard order of business.
2. The order of business to be followed will include:
 - a. Call to order
 - b. Reading and approval of the minutes
 - c. Reports of officers, boards, and standing committees
 - d. Reports of special committees

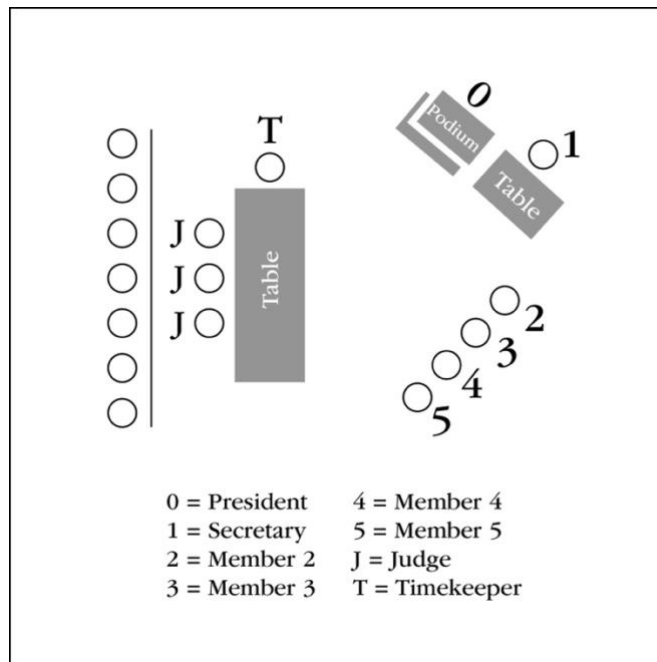

- e. Special orders
 - f. Unfinished business
 - g. New business
 - h. Adjourn
3. During the simulated demonstration, the team must properly handle items dictated by the above order of business and materials given to the teams by the technical committee. The demonstration must include no fewer than six motions, including at least one motion of each of the following types:
 - a. Privileged
 - b. Subsidiary
 - c. Main
 - d. Incidental
 - e. Motions that bring a question before the assembly again

Note: Additional points will not be given for demonstrating extra motions correctly. If extra motions are used incorrectly, points will be deducted accordingly.
 4. During competition orientation, each team member will take a written test covering basic parliamentary procedures, based on Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.
 5. The order of appearance for teams is determined by a random drawing.
 6. Sixty minutes prior to the team's demonstration in front of the judges, the team will be given a list of business items to insert into the order of business: the secretary's minutes of the previous meeting, the treasurer's report, and paper for preparing any committee report. Any written committee reports submitted will comply with the provisions set forth in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, and stipulated by the minutes of the previous meeting. Teams may bring their own copy of the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised to use in the preparation room, but it must be given to the timekeeper during their demonstration.
 7. During the simulated meeting presentation, the team may use only the secretary's minutes of the previous meeting, the treasurer's report, the list of business items and committee reports. The presiding officer may make notes on the list of business items; however, a team will be disqualified if any member uses notes during the simulated presentation. The secretary will be provided with a pad and pencil for recording minutes of the simulated meeting. One copy of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised will be in the demonstration area for the team's reference. There will be a penalty for each item not covered.
 8. The demonstration area will be furnished with a table and chairs for judges and competition officials. A timekeeper will be seated beside the judges' table in clear view of the demonstrating team. The demonstration area will be set with four chairs for team members and a table from which the presiding officer will conduct the meeting and the secretary will take minutes. The presiding officer will stand, not sit, while presiding.
 9. The demonstration should be at least 10 minutes in length but should not exceed 15 minutes. There will be five points deducted for each 30 seconds or fraction thereof under 10 minutes or over 15 minutes.
 10. Following adjournment of the simulated business meeting, the secretary will read the minutes covering the demonstration to the judges. The minutes will be judged for completeness as read, not for penmanship or sentence structure. The time required to complete the recording and reading of the secretary's minutes at the end of the presentation will not count toward a team's time. However, the secretary will have a maximum of three minutes to complete the recording and reading of the secretary's minutes after the meeting is adjourned.

11. All materials given to team members, along with the minutes of the demonstration and committee reports, will be given to a competition official in the demonstration area after the completion of the demonstration.
12. Throughout the demonstration, team members will be referred to by first name only. No reference may be made to their school's name, city, or state. A five-point penalty will be assessed each time anyone is identified by school, city or state in the presentation.
13. The chair and secretary shall be positioned at the head table, with the other team members positioned in four chairs staggered in front of the table.
14. The demonstration area will be furnished with seats for judges and observers with a demonstration area at the front. The demonstration area will be set up with four chairs for team members and a table, from which the president will conduct the meeting and the secretary will take minutes. A table and chairs will be provided for the judges and competition officials. The timekeeper will be seated beside the judge's table to be in clear view of competitors.

Note: The official SkillsUSA Opening and Closing ceremonies are not to be performed during this competition.

Language Arts Standards

- Students read a wide range of print and nonprint texts to build an understanding of texts, of themselves and of the cultures of the United States and the world to acquire new information, to respond to the needs and demands of society and the workplace and for personal fulfillment. Among these texts are fiction and nonfiction, classic and contemporary works.
- Students apply a wide range of strategies to comprehend, interpret, evaluate and appreciate texts. They draw on their prior experience, their interactions with other readers and writers, their knowledge of word meaning and of other texts, their word identification strategies and their understanding of textual features (e.g., sound-letter correspondence, sentence structure, context, graphics).
- Students adjust their use of spoken, written and visual language (e.g., conventions, style, vocabulary) to communicate effectively with a variety of audiences and for different purposes.
- Students employ a wide range of strategies as they write and use different writing process elements appropriately to communicate with different audiences for a variety of purposes.

- Students apply knowledge of language structure, language conventions (e.g., spelling and punctuation), media techniques, figurative language and genre to create, critique and discuss print and nonprint texts.
- Students conduct research on issues and interests by generating ideas and questions and by posing problems. They gather, evaluate and synthesize data from a variety of sources (e.g., print and nonprint texts, artifacts, people) to communicate their discoveries in ways that suit their purpose and audience.
- Students use a variety of technological and information resources (e.g., libraries, databases, computer networks, video) to gather and synthesize information and to create and communicate knowledge.
- Students participate as knowledgeable, reflective, creative and critical members of a variety of literacy communities.
- Students use spoken, written and visual language to accomplish their own purposes (e.g., for learning, enjoyment, persuasion and the exchange of information).
