

SkillsUSA South Carolina State President named a SkillsUSA / National Technical Honor Society Scholarship Recipient

June 2021

Congratulations to Megan vanVollenhoven, the 2020-2021 SkillsUSA South Carolina State President, who was named one of only four students from across the country, to earn the SkillsUSA / National Technical Honor Society Scholarship Winner.

Megan just graduated from Chapin High School and was an intern in the Law Enforcement Services program at the Center for Advanced Technical Studies in Chapin, SC. She interned at McAngus Goudelock & Courie Law Firm (Columbia, SC) and with Senator Ronnie Cromer's Office (Columbia, SC). Megan will be attending the University of South Carolina in Fall 2022 and has been offered the opportunity to continue with Senator Cromer's Office as a page.

Megan received a medal, a certificate, and a check for her scholarship win. Her SkillsUSA advisor is Joseph Chapman.

